Robin did the lion's share of the work in planning the Keizer 40th Birthday celebration. Her expertise in planning and coordinating was indispensable. She has an impressive handle on the big picture and anticipates all the little details. Most important, she is a people person. Not only does she have excellent connections, but she is also wonderfully persuasive. She also worked in close conjunction with Counselor Kohler, Mayor Clark, Tim Wood, the Community Diversity Engagement Committee, and I to make sure all efforts were coordinated and that tasks were brought to fruition. Robin made the Keizer 40th birthday celebration wonderful for all. We could not have done it without her.

RE: Volunteer of the Quarter Nomination

Robin Barney is an amazing lady. Her excitement and energy lights up any room she enters. When she learned of Keizer's 40th Birthday bash she determined she wanted to be a part of it. Her tireless efforts in organizing, calling, running down participants and donations was an integral part of the success of the event. She did not take no for an answer and works until she gets the results she desired, which was for the event to be a happy, memorable and enjoyable success. Using her historical knowledge and investigative skills she helped engaged the right people for the right parts to make it happen for a true historical event.

Robin not only served at the 40th event, but in so many other ways she provides joy to the people of Keizer.

I therefore, 100% support recognizing Robin Richmond-Barney as the Volunteer of the Quarter.

Please explain the impacts these contributions have had on the city of Keizer or the Keizer community::

The Keizer 40th Birthday celebration was a two day event that included music, art, activities, community and city achievements and more. It was a complex event to put together and the team needed a person with the breadth of experience in exactly this kind of celebration that Robin has. She has organizational skills, communications and follow through, contacts virtually everywhere, and a boundless work ethic. Robin helps everyone she works with be successful and get the credit. It is my pleasure and honor to nominate Robin Barney for Volunteer of the Quarter for the Keizer 40th Birthday and her decades of volunteer leadership to the Keizer community.
