APPROVAL OF MINUTES – Beth Melendy moved for approval of the November 2022 Minutes. Laura Reid seconded. Motion passed as follows: Steen, Melendy, Reid, Thoreson and Christopher in favor with Squires and Mallette absent at time of vote.

APPEARANCE OF INTERESTED CITIZENS: None

GALLERY DISPLAY SCHEDULE | February-March ~ Art Madrid: Commission reviewed pieces submitted for display. Following discussion on the appropriateness of the Native American representations and whether or not anything was inconsistent or incorrect to a specific tribe, Commissioners agreed that since they were not specific to a particular tribe, they would be displayed with the understanding that if it was brought to their attention that they were offensive, the specific piece could be removed.

Lore Christopher moved to accept all artwork as submitted. Beth Melendy seconded. Motion passed as follows: Steen, Melendy, Reid, Christopher, Squires and Thoreson in favor, with Mallette absent at time of vote.

ROUNDBOUT ART UPDATE: Discussion took place regarding the art, funding and the possible explanatory plaque to be displayed in the gallery if funding allowed.

Lore Christopher moved that, if enough funds are available, a plaque describing who the cows are named after and information about each will be purchased and displayed at the Community Center. Beth Melendy seconded. Motion passed unanimously as follows: Steen, Melendy, Reid, Thoreson, Squires, Mallette and Christopher in favor.

Beth Melendy moved that the cows be named for Rosalie Herber, Audrey Butler and Lore Christopher. Laura Reid seconded. (The remaining cow will be named through the fundraising contest which was approved at the November 2022 meeting.)

GRANT EFFORTS: So far the Commission has not received any grants but efforts continue. Lore Christopher noted that the Oregon Arts Commission Cultural Trust Grant might be available as well as one from the Oregon Community Foundation.

PGE CONTACT REGARDING UTILITY BOX PAINTING: Kat Thoreson agreed to contact the PGE Arts Council. Discussion took place regarding the effect the heat generated by the utility boxes would have on paint applied and the possibility of using shrink-wrapped art instead. City Manager Adam Brown noted that this had been done in Ontario. He volunteered to help identify the ODOT boxes and talk to an ODOT representative.

EAGLE SCULPTURE PURCHASE UPDATE: Staff reported that the contract has been signed and funds received from Bloch. A sign will be ordered for the sculpture which will include acknowledgement of the donation.

REVIEW OF ARTS COMMISSION BUDGET: Discussion took place regarding purchasing art. Staff reminded the Commission that they would be receiving a compilation of all art submitted during the 22-23 fiscal year at the next meeting. They would make their selection (depending on funds available) at the May meeting.

STUDENT/EMERGING ARTIST DISPLAY: Student Liaison Katherine Klein agreed to reach out to McNary students who might want to display. Laura Reid reminded her that this is the time for end of year projects and those might be an option. Lore Christopher noted that the Keizer Art Association would be having a student art show the first Saturday in February and perhaps candidates could be found from that event.

OTHER BUSINESS: Felicia Squires will report to Council.

ADJOURN: The meeting adjourned at 6:43 p.m.

Judges:

When I designed this little quilt for the holiday card art contest, I wanted to incorporate symbols that signify Keizer to me.

The bulk of the quilt is intentionally scrappy because our community is so delightfully diverse; and while there are so many unique people and organizations within our boundaries, we're connected by our common threads, as represented by the band of bright green that weaves throughout the quilt blocks. The "flying geese" triangles with the year appliquéd on top remind me of the geese at Staats Lake. One of the joys of living in Keizer is seeing and hearing them as they fly overhead each morning like clockwork.

I wanted to somehow incorporate the fact that Keizer is celebrating 40 years as a city this year, but decided to stick to the holiday aspect of this contest.

Here's what I was thinking of putting on the front before settling on the other sentiment:

Threads of every color
Make our city warm and bright.
Our wish is that your holidays are full of peace and light!
May each new memory
that you make in 2024
help strengthen our community with "WELCOME" at each door.

Thanks for your consideration!

NAME THAT COW NOMINATIONS

1	MARY (Bauer) Opra as she has been a part of one of the most Keizer centric businesses and families that has touched so much of Keizer. Chamber, Merchants Association, Rotary. Mary has been involved in Chamber, Distinguished Young Women, and luckily for Keizer a member of a Foundation that gives grants, involved in the start &amp; operation of Leadership Keizer. A great human being, a person who exemplifies grace and class, and of course from a great Keizer family!
2	My mom, RITA Powers, was born in Germany in 1955. Her arrival to Salem made headlines as she was the first baby girl adopted into the state of Oregon from another country. Mom spent most of her life in Keizer, and went on to raise her kids here as well. She went to the old Keizer schoolhouse when it was still sitting where schoolhouse square shopping center sits now. She attended McNary High school. But most importantly, she served our city for 25 years at the Keizer Police Department. She started August 7th 1989, and retired August 7th 2014. Unfortunately, mom passed away exactly 5 years later, on August 7th 2019 from a rare lung disease. My sister and I continue to serve our communities thanks to her example. Mom may not have been born here, but she was meant to be here. No matter where we go, Keizer will always be "home" because it was Mom's home. And, besides, Rita is a great name for a cow.
3	Until recently, JOANNE Beilke was a Keizer resident with years of involvement in the community. A long-time member of the Keizer Chamber of Commerce, she served as president when Keizer became a city. It is because of JoAnne Beilke there was a Keizer Iris Festival for more than three decades until it was renamed KeizerFEST. She knew the city needed an identity and developed the idea of Keizer being the world's Iris Capital. As a member of the board and board president of the Keizer Heritage Foundation, she was instrumental in ushering the old Keizer School building into the 21st century. Believing education is the ultimate key to success, JoAnne Beilke's 18-year service as the Keizer representative on the Chemeketa Community College Board of Education was invaluable to the community.
